

How to join us

Are you an Italian company operating in the biotechnology field with a strong interest in life science, agro food and bioeconomy? Don't miss the opportunity to join us and become a member of the biggest Italian cooperative network in public and private biotech sector. Discover our wide range of services and benefits concerning knowledge transfer and advanced research, academic and post-doctoral training, scientific collaboration in international projects and company development support. If you want to explore more, download our brochure to learn about membership procedure and convenience.

MEMBERSHIP CHARTER

1 About the charter

The following entities can become members of Consorzio Italbiotec: companies, foundations, private associations operating theoretical and practical research activity in industrial biotechnology field concerning agro food, bioeconomy and life science applications.

2 Our mission

Established in 1998, Consorzio Italbiotec is a no profit private and public entity which aims at promoting biotechnologies development both at the national and the international level by encouraging an efficient cooperation and a successful partnership between the academic field and the industrial sector. We aspire to become a reference point for scientific excellence in order to create a safe and sustainable environment thanks to a strategic application of scientific innovation with tangible benefits for our society.

3 Our goals

Consorzio Italbiotec strives to become a reference point in the biotechnology context by implementing successful consulting strategies concerning not only business development for private companies but also project management support for public research centers. Our focus is improving client's performances by boosting R&D innovation with a comprehensive approach based on a strategic bolster in every step of operational routine, delivering the best solutions to incoming challenges.

4 Our commitments

The Consortium members have the following rights:

- Access to specific and advanced services;
- Access to expertise and knowledge transfer through the cooperative network of private and public actors created by the Consorzio for the development and jointed participation of funded projects;
- Access to a wide range of profitable agreements with Consorzio's partners;
- Visibility and promotion through the Consorzio's website and social networks;
- Use of Consorzio's logo in compliance with institutional and corporate purpose.

The Consortium members don't have any obligation and responsibility in Consorzio Italbiotec governance and don't participate in any Assembly.

5 Your engagement

Every member will be subjected to the following obligations:

- Respect the Charter, the Statute rules and every Assembly Resolutions
- Opportunity to provide in-house personnel and external collaborators to Consorzio Italbiotec for the implementation of research and education activities

6 Membership procedure

The applicant must submit the membership form completed, stamped and signed by the legal representative to the Administrative Office through pec at the following address: consorzio@pec.italbiotec.it. When received, a confirmation letter will be sent.

The application will be subjected to Consorzio Italbiotec evaluation and Board of Directors' Resolution.

7 Contacts

Consorzio Italbiotec
Silvia Lepore, Administrative office
E-mail: silvia.lepore@italbiotec.it